TRAIN WAS RUNNING FAST TO RECOVER LOST TIME.

No. 68 was more than half an hour behind its scheduled time, and Engineer Horn after leaving Wood Station, took advantage of the straight stretch of track and supsed good road bed ahead to recover the lost time so that the train might arrive in St. Louis without delay.

When about one mile south of Woods, the locomotive suddenly began to rock and The rails gave way under the big drivers and the ties crumbled and cracked as the trucks ground them to tinder. Enas the track ground them it, and reversed the engine, doing everything possible to avert the wrecking of the train, but be-fore two hundred and fifty yards of the bellast had been plowed through, the monster Mogul overbulanced and fell in a eap, down the embankment, a distance of ten feet, carrying with it the engineer, still clinging to the throttle and emergency =+++++++++ Washington, Jan. 13.-The Ways and feans Committee of the House to-day decided to report a bill providing for a rebate equal to the duty now imposed-on all kinds of coal and coming from all countries for a period of one year.

This bill is a substitute for the one introduced by Representative Hill of Connecticut, which provided for a rebate until June 30 next.

The committee reported the bill, but did not call it up in the House for consideration to-day, as originally contemplated, the ecision having been reached to bring it up under a rule to-morrow. The bill adopted provides:

"That the Secretary of the Treasury b and is hereby authorized and required to make full rebates of duties imposed by law on all coal of every form and description imported into the United States from foreign countries for the period of one year from and after the passage of this act."

Representative Richardson of Tennesse proposed an amendment striking out the words "for a period of one year," which was voted down. He then proposed an amendment placing all coals on the free list. which was likewise voted down. The final vote on the adoption of the bill was unant-

COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

The report of the committee submitted to the House by Chairman Payne, after recomnending the passage of the bill, says: "This is an emergency measure demand ed because of the scarcity and high price of coal, resulting from the recent prolonged strike in the anthracite coal mines. "Precedents for such legislation are found in the Chicago fire and the fire at Eastport. Me. In these cases Congress rebated the duty on lumber used in rebuilding in the urned districts.

"Whether the legislation will increase the importations or reduce the price of coal is a question on which men differ. But it is all Congress can do in the premises, and will satisfy the demand of many of our citizens. While there is a threatened coal famine in any part of the country we cannot turn a deaf ear to the cries of the

"The committee did not consider it bes o make any changes in the tariff on coa after the period of one year had expired, preferring to bring in this as a purely emergency measure and not desiring to go into the question of tariff revision, even upon this one article. If any relief can come to the people from such legislation, it will be amply secured in the period pro-vided for in the bill."

to Accept House Bill. Washington, Jan. 13.-After the adjournnent of the Senate to-day the Republicar members of the Senate Committee on Finance held a conference of more than an hour's duration on the various resolutions before the Senate for the removal of the tariff on anthracite coal. They had before them the text of the cite duty for twelve months, and practical y agreed to accept it without alteration if the Democratic committeemen could be induced to allow it to be so reported without delay. The opinion was quite unanimous that the situation calls for prompt action and the Senate Committee will be called to gether perhaps to-morrow afternoon, immediately after the House passes the bill.

WOMAN TRADES DAUGHTER FOR A TON OF COAL.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Binghamton, N. Y., Jan. 12.-Mrs. Arthur Mitchell of Glenwood, Pa., has traded her 4-year-old daughter, Lillie, for a ton of coal, to a Mrs. Cobper, who had previously sought to adopt the child. REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Chicago, Jan. 13.-Proof which it is thought, will certainly lead to indictment by the special Grand Jury against the coal barons was placed before that body to-day. Late to-night there was a conference between State Attorney Dineen and his asdistants, Barnes and Sprogle, after which half a dozen detectives were hurriedly sumnoned to the Criminal Court building

They received careful instructions, which it is said embrace the shadowing of sev eral operators who are on the verge of be ing indicted. The State fears a leakage might warn these persons and cause them to leave the city before action can be taken An all-night session of the attorneys is being held, and indictments may be made public at any time.

Some of the evidence given to-day relates to an alleged agreement drawn in March last year, which, it is said, governs a dozen mine operators in the Clinton (Ind.) district, with Walter S. Bogle and the Crescent Coal and Mining Company, as the Chicago factor. It is charged in the evidence presented that Mr. Bogle appears, as president of one of the Indiana mining companies, making an agreement with himself as president of the Crescent Coal and Mining Company. It is said these mines were compelled to pool their outputs, to be disposed of by the Chicago factor. In getting at the facts, the jury to-day called before it Max Eichberg of the Wabash Valley Coal Company, and recalled Charles W. Glimore and Norman S. Birkland, officers of the Crescent com-S. Bratan, officers of the Creekin Cal-pany, who were before the jury yesterday, Several militoad men were also on hand to-day, representing the Burlington, Illinois Central, Wabash, Monon and Michigan Cen-tral, and were called in as fast as their testimony could be heard.

W. H. Abrams of the Building Managers' Association, was also a witness, and, it is said, gave valuable information concerning the maintenance of a room by coal dealers where secret conferences were held at reg-ular intervals prior to the starting of the his association had found that dealers de-layed delivery of coal in good weather and then pleaded that they were unable to de-liver in rough weather, thus compelling building managers to consume their entire steck of coal on hand.

14th St. and Pennsylvania Ave.

Washington, Jan. 13.-The House of Rep. esentatives to-day had a good old-fashioned partisan rough and tumble, in which Champ Clark and the doughty Grosvenor of Ohio led the fray. The Missourian handled himself in such a manner as to cause general comment on his availability for the minority leadership.

The debate, which grew very rancorous, was followed with great interest and as it progressed one Republican after anothcame to Grosvenor's sid, only to be bowled over with celerity and grace by the Mis-

BITTER CONTROVERSY. It is a long time since a political mix-up in Congress has been so bitter and vigorous as that of to-day. The fact is the Republic an horizon has become suddenly clouded and the leaders of that party are waking to the knowledge that things have begun to drift away from them. The explanation in the land and the general condemnation of the dominant party for its indifference to the sufferings of the poor, the menace to reanufacturing industries for want of coal and the Republican apathy to the extortions of the Coal Trust.

That party is making an eleventh-hour suspending the tariff on coal, but the leaders realize that they were forced to action by the movement started by Vest in the Senate and taken up quickly by other Democrats in both houses. As a result the Republicans have become fretful, irritated and alarmed for political consequences.

Proof of this is the speech of Dolliver of Iowa in the Senate, who to-day told his Republican colleagues that Vest was perfectly right, and that Dingley had said that the rates in his tariff bill were too high. Dolliver indorsed the statement emphatically, and his expressions and manner amused In both houses the Republicans are discordant and at sea as to the great issues before the people-the cost famine, the urbing of the great trusts and reciprocity. It was in this frame of mind that the Republicans went to the Capitol to-day. When the House met Grosvenor resorted hoping to divert popular clamor against hi own party by denouncing the Democrats, The result was far from what he had hoped. Grosvenor's friends this evening express the wish that the Ohloan had renained indoors this zero day. Recently Clark criticised some deduction nade by Grosvenor from the result of the late elections. Grosvenor referred to this and charged that under honest election laws Missouri would have increased her representation in Congress, and that in time its lectoral vote would be Republican. Clark replied that if Grosvenor "lives un til Missouri casts her electoral vote for a tepublican candidate for the presidency, he will double discount Methuselah, the oldest man that ever lived." (Laughter.) That State has a case of Republican maldministration for eight years and since the norning stars first sang together for joy there was never such a Saturnalia of crim in the history of the human race as the records of the Republican party in the State of Missouri." DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

Clark recalled Grosvenor's assertion that when the last election was over there was othing left of the Democratic party." "The Democrats," said Mr. Clark, "elect ed 178 Representatives to the next Congress out of 386. Does that look as if there was nothing left of the Democratic party? The States that the Democrats carried in 1902 would have given 158 electoral votes out of 476. Does that look as if the Democrati party was 'fading away,' or as if there was

In California-if the man wants to go West, I will go with him to the Pacific-in California the shrinkage was from 39,770 to 1,550. Is there hope for Republicanism in that? In Pennsylvania from 233,433 to 155,410. In Michigan the shrinkage was from 104,584 to 37,184; in Masachusetts from 81,969 to 37,120; in New Hampshire from 19,314 to 8,271.

"To sum up, these States are reliably Democratic: Alabama, Arkansas, Fiorida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Nevada, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia, with 154 electoral votes.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Washington, Jan. 12.-William R. Day of Ohio, who was Secretary of State in President McKinley's first Cabinet, has been asked by President Roosevelt to succeed Associate Justice George Shiras when he retires next month from the Supreme Court. No formal reply has yet been received from Judge Day, but it is expected he will accept.

In appointing Judge Day President Rooseveit will carry out the intention of McKinley, who, it is understood, had promised ley, who, it is understood, had promised to place him on the Supreme bench.

This was intended both as a recognition of his ability as a jurist and as a reward for his services as Secretary of State during the Spanish-American War and later on the Peace Commission which brought the war to a close and obtained for the United States the Philippines, Cuba and Porto Rico. The appointment is somewhat notable in that Ohio, from which Judge Day will be appointed, is not in the judicial circuit to which Judge Shiras was sessined and from which he was appointed. And as it has not been customary to appoint two members of the Supreme Court from the same district, the President will make another notable appointment if he curries our later his accredpointment if he carries out later his accred ited intention to elevate Governor Taft ited intention to elevate Governor Taft.

CRISP WOULD REPEAL WHOLE DIVORCE LAW.

Jackson County Representative I troduced Bill in the Missouri Legislature.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 13.—Colonel John T. Crisp of Jackson County is still as gal-lant as ever. He arose in the House this morning, after being excused from attendance for sickness, and came to the defens

It did not take him long to show he stood. With calm dignity he introduced a bill providing for the repeal of chapter 20 of the Revised Statutes, which now pernits ill-mated couples to I without let or hindrance. If this bill is passed there will be no more separating of men and women because of misplaced affection, for chapter 29 contains the entire d vorce laws of the State.

"Yes, I mean every word in that bill," said the Colonel, "I went down to the Jackson County Courthouse the other day and eighteen men and women were asking for divorces. There were not that many licenses issued that day. When I was a young man, the person who secured a divorce was barred from good society. That old ruic was right, and if I have my way it will again be the rule.

"Then, too, what about these poor women who work their hands off trying to advance the ambitions of husbands? In their middle age the man is fat, prosperous and in his prime, but the woman has crow's feet his prime, but the woman has crow stooped shoulders and a broken co tion. Then the man goes after a divorce and gets a young woman to take the part which the other woman had made. "Give the ugly woman a chance. If he peachy cheeks are yellowed by the years, let the man stick to her. She is the better soul of the two in the sight of God, and should be in the sight of man."

Washington, Jan. 13 .- After mature consideration, it has been decided by the Pres-ident that Judge Taft shall remain in the was reached only after the President had with Secretary Root and the other member of his Cabinet, and with Vice Governo Luke E. Wright, who has been in this country for two months. For several weeks it has been regarded as settled that Governor Taft would return to his country, perhaps in a few months ecome a Justice of the United States Supreme Court. President Roosevelt indicated to Governor Taft, in a letter dispatched to the Philippines more than a month ago, that he could have the appoint ment to the Supreme Bench if he desired it. It was the President's purpose to name General Wright as Civil Governor of the Philippines.

As soon as it was learned in the Philippines that Governor Taft was likely to leave the islands cabled protests began to pour in on the Fresident from prominent Filipinos. Even yesterday the President was in receipt of a cablegram from some of the most important interests in the Philippines urging the retention of Governor Taft as AUTHORITATIVE ANNOUNCEMENT.

To-day, in response to the President's let-ter offering to him the Supreme justiceship, a cablegram was received from him sug-gesting, with a sincere appreciation of the tender made to him by the Presidnt, that it might be better for him, in view of all the rcumstances, to remain where he was. After this it was announced unofficially, but entirely authoritatively, that Governor Taft would remain indefinitely as Civil Governor of the Philippines.

During the afternoon, subsequent to the Cabinet meeting, Secretary Root had a long conference with the President, at which the Philippine situation was canvassed in all its

Many serious problems are yet to be solved, with respect to the islands and the administration is looking with confidence to Governor Taft to reach such a solution of them as will be satisfactory to the people of this country, the Filipinos and to the world.

sters' National and international unions.
George J. Tansey, a member of the Team Owners' Association, stated last night that the meeting at his office yesterday took no action on the demands of the union, as nothing has been heard from the proposition already submitted to the union. He stated that the body submitted a compromise proposition to the union Sunday and that the men have taken no cognisance of it.
Officials of the union believe that their demands will be granted, and so far have only called drivers out at the stables
